

The Calvet Foundation

Digital image database - services and fees

The Calvet Foundation can provide, on request, digital reproductions of certain of our works (according to availability, as not all works have digital copies or can be digitally copied).

Digital images will be sent by email or via a server (according to image size) in JPEG, PDF or TIFF format, and at 300dpi.

DIGITAL IMAGE REPRODUCTIONS – TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Any public use of images will require specific prior written permission from the Vice President of the Calvet Foundation as well as the executors.
2. A copy of all publications in which the reproductions appear must be sent to the Calvet Foundation (documents, films, objects, posters, etc.).
3. It is the image user's liability to obtain all necessary information concerning existing copyrights or license fees (see French organisation ADAGP) and to respect them, as well as to obtain any required release approval from the author or rights holder, if the document is not public domain.
4. The image user hereby agrees to include on all publications the following compulsory reference: FONDATION CALVET or its logo, as well as due photo credits (which shall be provided by email).
5. The reproduction rights will be granted upon receipt of payment and of the present form signed and initialed by both parties.
